You haven't completed your Bachelor's degree yet? At Hochschule Fresenius, you can start your Master's program and finish your Bachelor's program at the same time, provided you have attained at least 80 percent of the credit points by the time of enrollment. In addition, Bachelor's students at Hochschule Fresenius will only pay the monthly Master's tuition fees when starting the Master's program.

CP = Credit points in accordance with the ECTS

<sup>2</sup> Students whose German skills are not equivalent to at least Level A2 take the module German II: Working in Germany. Students with the necessary German skills take the module Foreign Language Skills.

<sup>3</sup> Instead of spending their third semester on campus, students can choose to go abroad, selecting the „International Studies“ module. Alternatively, they can opt for an internship, selecting the „International Experience“ module in addition to „Scientific Work in Practice“. This is designed to allow students to choose specializations.

<sup>4</sup> Potentially online to allow individual mobility in the last semester.
